Dedication

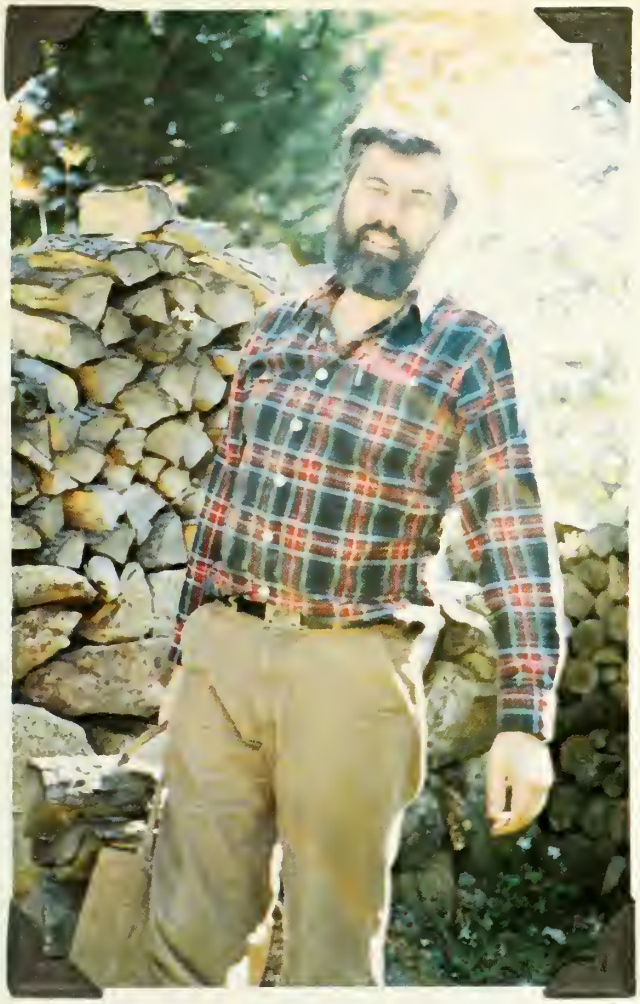
mr. brown
social studies dept.

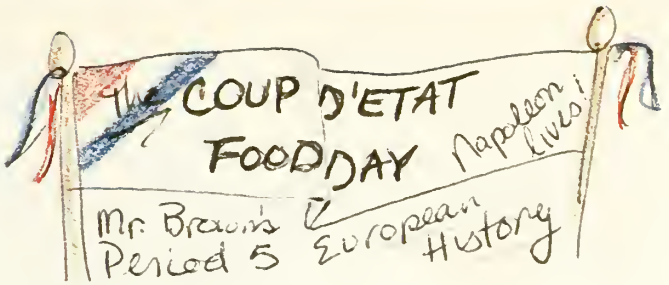
Dear Uncle Al,
Thanks for all your help over the past four years. We know you loved every minute of it! ha, ha, ha—
Seriously, it was great.
Bye-bye and see you in Babylon.
the Class of '83

Many of us first met Mr. Brown when we were in the ninth grade. He was our Western Civilization teacher. At times, his overbearing personality and dynamic teaching style scared us. His workload was heavy and he required us to think. When he told us someday we would affectionately refer to him as Uncle Al, we laughed at him.

During our sophomore year, Mr. Brown taught many of us European history. Though some were still wary of his history-related jokes and jabs, many members of the class realized what a fine teacher and dear friend Mr. Brown was. Throughout our senior year, he has remained a friend of the Class of 1983. He has been generous in giving advice on assorted adolescent dilemmas; writing papers, selecting colleges, and staying sane until graduation.

Mr. Brown has a unique approach to teaching. Rather than parrot information to his students, he encourages them to come up with the answers and to express themselves intelligently. The questions he raises are comparable to those asked of college students. Mr. Brown refuses to settle for mediocrity from his students and from himself. He demands the best that each student has to offer; a request that is often met with frustration, anxiety, and anger. In the end the work is done and is done extremely well; a compliment to his ability as a teacher.





One of Mr. Brown's favorite assignments (besides the 100 page World War I paper) was the historical reference notebook; a collection of names, phrases, and quotes relating to history and politics from Bucephalus, Alexander the Great's horse, to Breshnev. The notebooks were kept throughout our sophomore year and were the catalyst of such great events as the Coup d'Etat Monster Banquet. The feast was a salute to Napoleon and Mr. Brown. The menu consisted of the Frankfurt Assembly, reminiscent of the Second German Empire; Marie Antoinette's own Let Them Eat Cake Cake; the Tartar Yoke (Yolk); phalanxes of fudge; and Bismark's Blood and Iron Punch, rather than Napoleon brandy!

Campgrounds

For the past four years, Masconomet has been our home. Daily, we came to school, but we did more than just go to classes. Saturday football, soccer games, dances, field trips, and Frolics drew us together. We will remember our friends, but we should not forget where it all began — the corridors and classrooms of Masconomet.

TODAY is December 3, day 5, long 2....

Hello Friends,
How are you guys?
I'm fine but someone stuck gum on my chair and later that day, I dropped all my books in the hall.
I almost died!!

Where we are

Camp Masco is located in the heart of the Merrimack Valley on the banks of the Ipswich River, amongst the towering pines of Boxford. Boxford is a small town with a population of approximately 6000 spread out over 28 square miles. Since there are so few people per square mile, there is plenty of wooded area. This type of environment lends itself well to Camp Masco. It gives the campers an opportunity to explore and grow while still following the structured system of the camp.

What we are

The counselors at Camp Masco are of the highest quality. They are friends as well as instructors. Campers find that the counselors are tremendous resources. The exchange of ideas between counselors and campers is a special attraction of Camp Masco. The campers are constantly challenged with new problems and work hard to solve them. But campers have fun, and that is what Camp Masco is all about.

Who we are

A typical day at Camp Masco begins at 6:30 a.m. with the wake-up call, followed by breakfast at 7:00. Campers participate in various classes and activities until 2:30. Free time and club meetings are held from 2:30-3:15. Many campers are also involved in camp athletics. These include soccer, volleyball, golf, tennis, tree-climbing and others (check handbook for a complete listing). Weekends at Camp Masco are filled with football games, dances, and parties.

Chipmunks

Mom and Dad,
The camp is
HUGE!! (and a little scary!)
Us chipmunks get ranked on a lot but were tough
I really like the kids and the counselors are bearable.
It's hard being mature!
Love,
Amy

Beavers

Dear Mom & Dad,

Being a beaver is much better than being a chip monk (then again — what isn't??) We've had a lot of fun; now I can pick on them!! Just wait 'til next yr!!!

Love,
Joe

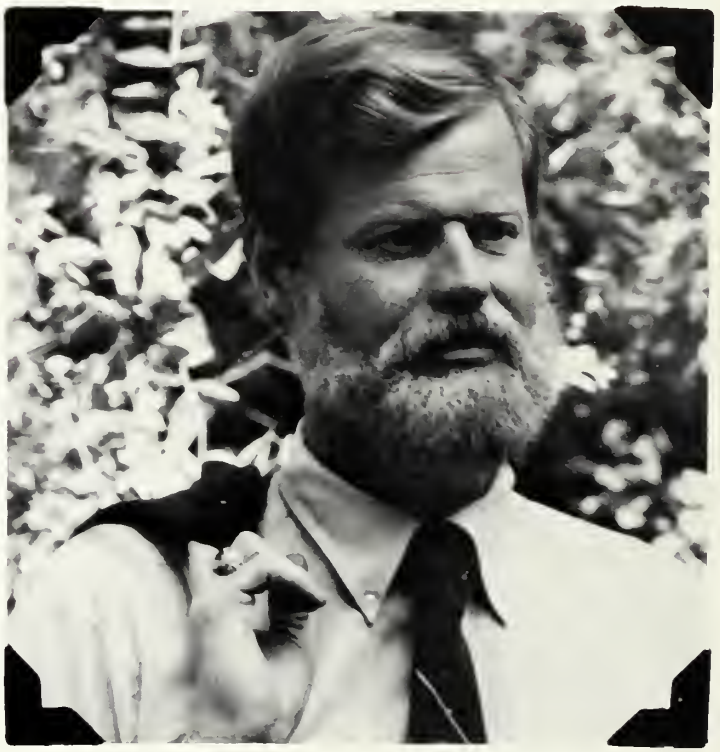
Camp Masco Handbook



WELCOME CAMPERS

We are pleased and proud to present the 1983 version of the Camp Masco Handbook. This year it is chock full of practical information that every camper should know.

Since it is our desire to have everyone well versed on our activities, philosophies, and goals, here at Camp Masco, we have made sure every possible question has been answered. Remember, this is your camp! Please feel free to use this handbook to keep up to date on the many facets that make Camp Masco what it is.

Most sincerely,
Stephen C. Smith
Camp Director

everything you always wanted to know about camp masco but were afraid to ask

DEMERITS

The demerit system at Camp Masco is as follows:

5 demerits — failure to report poison ivy outbreak
5 demerits — cheating on survival skills
10 demerits — canoeing in "out of bounds" areas
15 demerits — leaving campus without permission

An accumulation of more than 30 demerits will result in a camper-director conference and a short sheeting of the aforementioned camper's bed.

BEHAVIOR AT WIENER ROASTS

Campers attending such wiener roasts will be expected to obey the following rules:

1. Campers will be expected to report to fireside areas promptly at 6:00.
2. If a camper leaves the designated areas early, they will not be allowed to return.
3. Burning more than three (3) weiners past the edible stage in one sitting will result in loss of privileges for toasted marshmellows and last choice in fireside songs.

CAMP MASCO JINGLE

We have provided the lyrics to one of our all-time favorite fireside songs (sung to the tune of "On Top of Old Smokey")

If you go to Camp Masco,
You learn how to camp.
You make leather wallets,
and the cabins are damp.

We always have fun here,
the counselors are great.
Class is exciting,
it's choice.

FIREDRILL PROCEDURE

Should a campfire get out of control, the following procedure should be observed.

1. The first person to notice the fire should sound a general alarm.
2. DON'T PANIC!!
3. Form a bucket brigade.

Remember Campers — In emergency situations

ALWAYS USE THE BUDDY SYSTEM!

GRADES AND THEIR MEANING

At the end of each quarter, each camper will receive a report card. We have provided a list of grades and their meaning.

A — Excellent camper
B — Good camping skills
C — Joe average camper
D — Barely able to survive in wilderness
F — Sorry, Charlie

Industry grades are as follows:

1 — Very industrious
2 — C'mon, you can try harder than that
3 — In need of remedial scouting
4 — Heck, just give up

Attitude and Behavior grades:

1 — It's campers like you that make us proud
2 — You're on the right track
3 — Shape up or ship out
4 — Have you considered reform school?

THE MESS HALL

Camp Masco's cuisine is a rare combination of exotic treats and pure disgust (our apologies to Robyn's mom). Tater tots, tacos, mystery meat with gravy? And what was that pink fluff pie that seemed to whet all the appetites of these poor captive campers?! For those who dared to return this year there were few changes — pepperoni was added to the pizza.

Hello Mom and Pop,

The teachers here are pretty cool. They even had their pictures taken outdoors for the yearbook. Well, I gotta go take a test.

I love being a Senior!

See ya,
Me

P.S. The one eating breakfast is the SUPERINTENDENT!!

Things to Remember:

- Frolics - Friday/Saturday
- Christmas Party - December 17th (get a gift for the Swap!)
- Trigonometry Homework:

$\sin^2 + \cos^2 = 1$

$\sec^2 = \tan^2$ ← $\tan = \frac{\sin}{\cos}$

How many days till gra[illegible]ation?

Thing to Do

- pass Trigonometry
- go skiing over vacat
- turn in those dumb transcript requests later than... when?
- go to Senior Advent but when?

Oh, someone help

Always and Forever

Always and forever each moment with you
Seems just like a dream to me that somehow came true
And I know tomorrow will still be the same
For we've got a life of love that won't ever change
Everyday love me your own special way
Melt all my heart away with a smile
Take time to tell me you really care
And we'll spend tomorrow together
I'll always love you forever
There will always be sunshine when I look at you Something I can't explain just the things that you do
And if you get lonely phone me and take a second
To prove to me that magic you make
Everyday love me your own special way.
Melt all my heart away with a smile
Take time to tell me you really care
And tomorrow together

Hi ... Last weekend "Being true to our school" we a... hung around the water... area. (You'd think it was Cra... beach w/ all the lobsters and surfers and families!) Then we planned a reunion but a couple of people had a little trouble getting there! (Natalie-Francie and John!!) They got caught "Singing in the rain" when they not all the "Fame" the senior g... had ...

...ten, running from Law, they escaped
"horse Rock" w/ the GREAT!! We didn't use anything pre recorded which really brought out our special talent

But really, we showed
everyone OUR FROLICS would be unique!

I must admit our final production was simply the BEST ever!! (All the other campers loved it!) I have to admit also that "I've Loved These Days!!" After our great Frolics was an excellent party (Thanks Joe Grady!) -just kidding!

BE TRUE TO YOUR SCHOOL

Words and Music by the Beach Boys

When some loud bragger tries to put me do and says his school is great.
I tell him right away
Now what's the matter buddy ain't you heard of my school.
It's number one in the state.

So be true to your school.
Just like you would to your girl or guy
Be true to your school now
And let your colors fly
Be true to your school (Chorus)

I got a letter with my sweater
With the letter in front
I got for baseball and track
I'm proud to wear them
Now when I cruise

...sic by Bi...

Now we take our time, so nonch...
And spend our nights so bon viva...
We dress our days in silken robes
The money comes
The money goes
We know its all a passing phase

We light our lamps for atmosphere
And hang our hopes on chandeliers
We're going wrong, we're gaining weig...
We're sleeping long and far too late
And so it's time to change our ways
But I've loved these days

Now as we indulge in things refined
We hide our hearts from harder times
A string of pearls, a foreign car
Oh, we can only go so far
On' caviar and cabernet

We drown our doubts in dry champagne
And soothe our souls with fine cocaine
I don't know why I even care
We get so high and ...

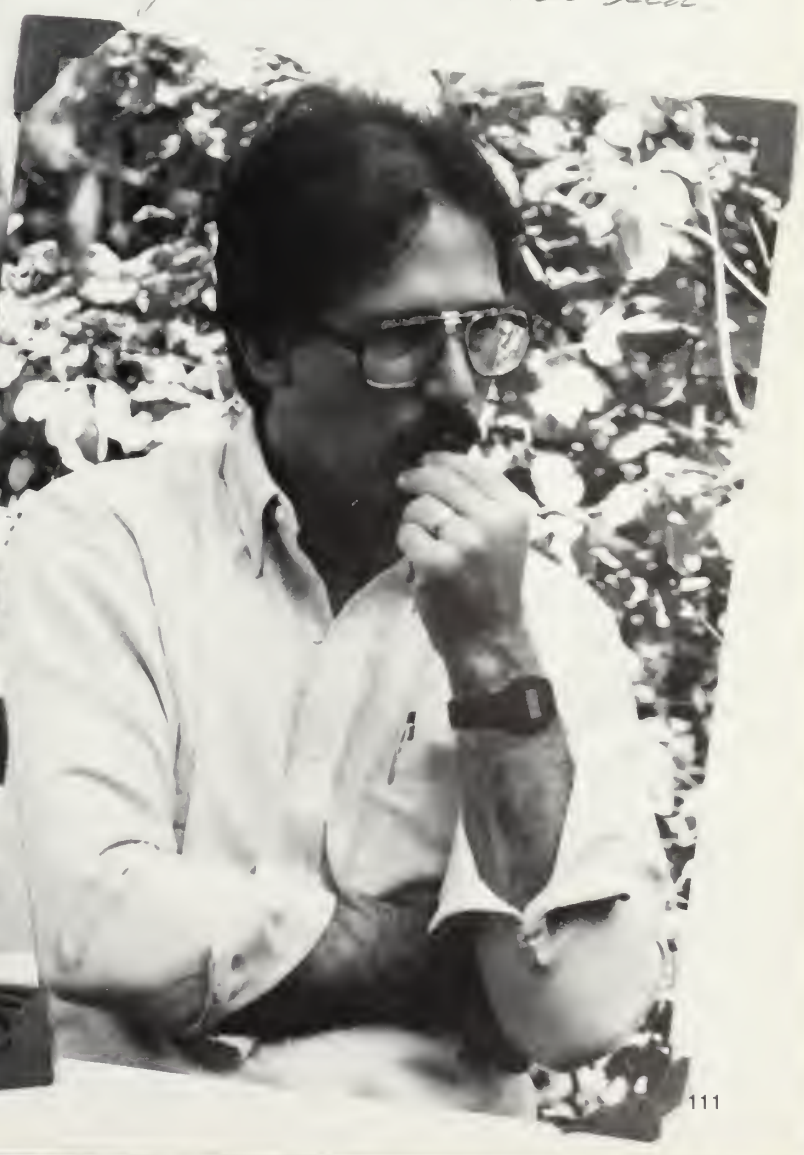
Training Center

Nasco's Training Center kids under the direction of Rich Gelson and Kathy Rendl learn basic academic and pre-vocational skills for "life after Nasco." Everyday the kids of C109 work on assembling, sorting, number identification, counting, etc.

This is one of the hardest working groups of kids Camp Nasco has ever seen!



Hi Mom & Dad!!

One of the parts about camp Masco is all the activities we can jo They've really fun!! want to be in at least three! And Guess what — we even have our own radio station here!! so — DON'T TOUCH THAT DIAL!! (haha)

Camp Masco Players present—

"Annie get Your Gun"

Dear Mommie,

We went to this musical called "Annie Get Your Gun", preformed by the Camp Masco Players. Annie was played by Kalen Murphy and Frank by Adam Bridges. They both did a really good job along with the other leads, the chorus, the specialty dancers, the fast moving stage crew, and the pit. We couldn't have done this without the wonderful director Jean Jarvis and music teacher Mrs. Killian Wells and . . . "the Little Dog Laughed"

Homecoming '82

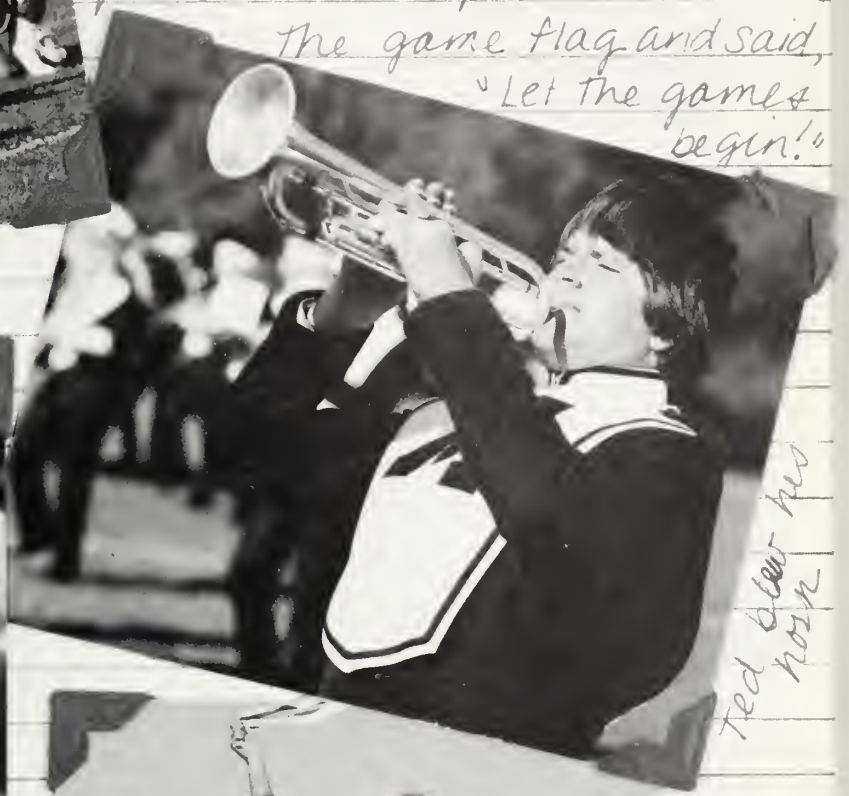
Seniors won the halls !!!!

Some strange characters turned out for the parade.

The court: Chris Linda, Amy the queen, Patti, Debbie, Chris, Kim

The fun started Thurs. night with hall decorating which the seniors won (of course!). Friday night was the bonfire, pep rally where the captains threw effigies of the opponents into the fire.

Everyone munched at the pancake breakfast in preparation for the big day. Julieanne Hyde got the pink pancake! Sr. captains raised the game flag and said, "Let the games begin!"



Ted does her hair

Louise!!

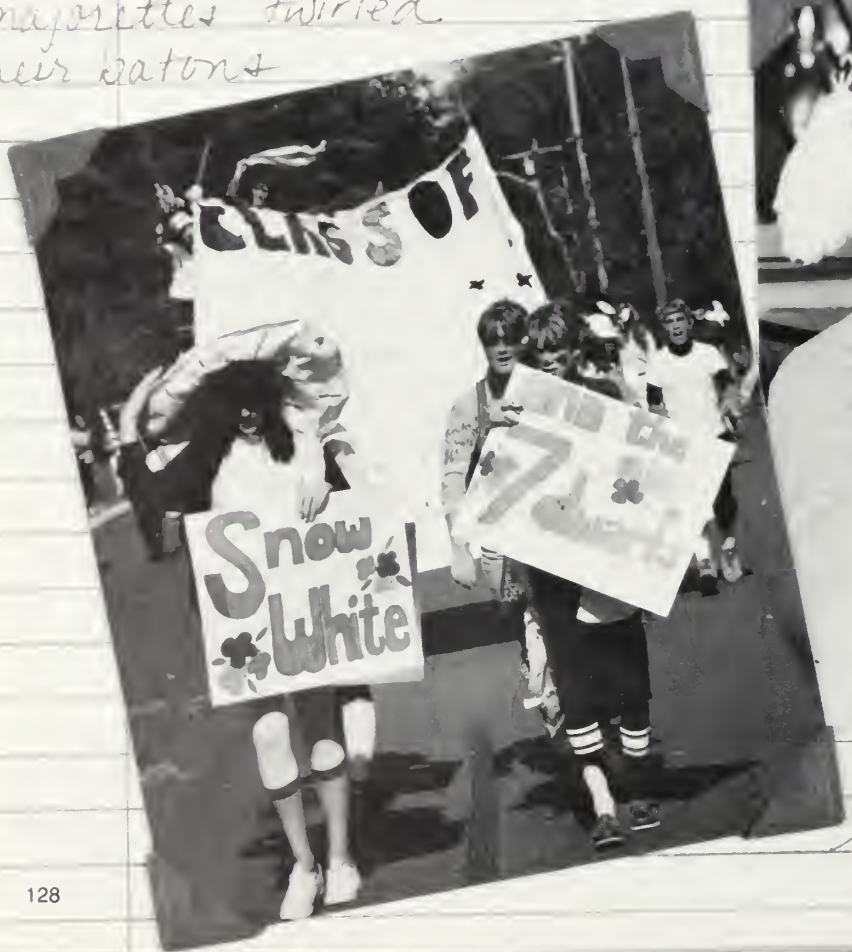
the freshman were psyched

The parade was next — Freshman were Snow White, Sophomores were Cinderella, Juniors were the Old Woman in the Shoe. The incredible Seniors were Alice in Wonderland!!

Even though the juniors won 1st prize for their float the seniors still knew that they would always be the best!!

majorettes twirled their batons

jrs. halls



The pancakes were so good they made people sing!

Putters & Drivers

The Camp Masco Golf team had a very successful season with a record of 11-2-3, but only good enough for 2nd place. Led by Sr. Lou Pat Murphy & Jr. Peter the team is now able to attain Coach Lauzon's highest goal, his 100th win (in his 2nd year of coaching). We have the highest admiration for our coach & look forward to his guidance when we go to the state tourney this spring. The team members made this year great. Next years team looks even brighter w/ Capt. Mark Gaboriault leading it & keeping the tradition going strong!

Thanks coach for everything.

Although the hockey team had a somewhat losing season, we gained knowledge about sportsmanship. The whole team played with heart and desire. This enabled us to defeat Lynnfield and Amesbury. Coach Driscoll and Coach Marsblain helped each one of us learn something about ourselves. So far we have improved and hopefully will keep improving in the years to come with young talent coming up in the ranks.

On being Editors

A CAMP MASCO PUBLICATION

BY ROBYN & FRAN (two good editors) they ought to know!

THE STORY OF THE 1983 MITOBO

We came up with our great theme of "NOTES FROM CAMP MASCO" in May of 1982. That's all we did that spring. Fall rolled around and we realized that creating a yearbook was more than a great theme. For starters, we took the entire faculty outside to PROJECT ADVENTURE for their pictures. This was done to enhance our rustic, great theme. They all loved it! Mr. Broughton scaled the wall and Mrs. Mannheim swung like Jane (of Tarzan and Jane) from tree to tree.

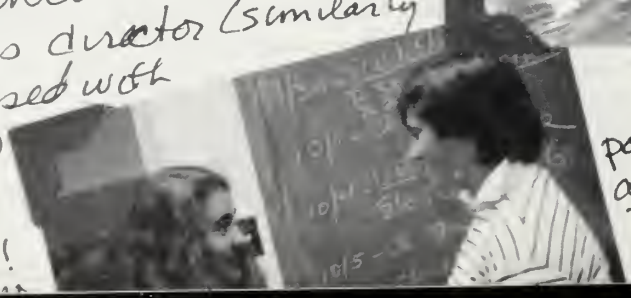
By now we were up to our knees in yearbook mess, as shown in Photo 1. We took the school van on patrol to scout out the camp terrain. It was a short ride, but we missed school, so it was not a total loss.

A minor problem was the fact that people did not all know our editor Frances - not Francie! Francie Burns was the Frolics director (similarly not to be confused with Frances McLaughlin.)

FRANCIE: FROLICS

FRANCES: YEARBOOK!!

PHOTO 1



In formal portraits were a big hit among the senior class. Robyn's was especially (page 52).

Since we would like this to be an educational readin
we will examine the relationship of cause and effect.

CAUSE: • informal portraits (hugging trees)
• Shortened not-next to the picture profiles
• addresses (but why?)
• our "surprises"

RESULT:

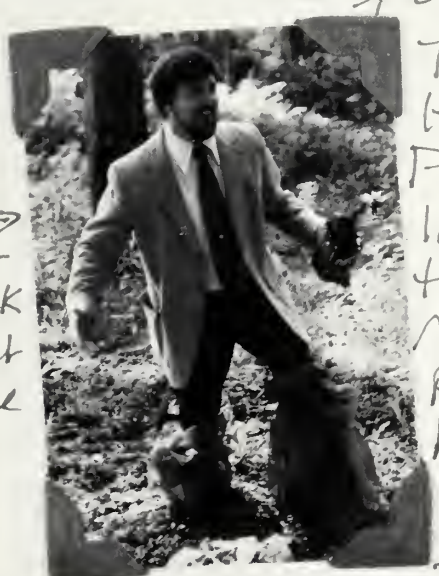
Darren Lowe's PETITION
I hope you didn't sign it! But it was all in good fun.

Now back to our narrative. Well, our first deadline rolled around on November the fifth. We began work November the fourth. Thank god it was only 16 pages - we thought yearbook was easy. That deadline also included our poster (which is no longer a secret.)

Before we continue, we would like to commend the class of on the fruitful ad drive. COMMENDATIONS, CLASS! Enjoy the 40 page ad section!

Our second dead line was December 23rd. While everyone else was out celebrating we were typing, crozzing, etc. How merry!! That was 100 pages. We began well before Christmas and went shopping Christmas Eve.

One person who made the book great was our main man and friendly photographer Jack PASTER. The teachers, sports teams, clubs, Halloween party goers, Christmas Party dancers and Frolics crew all loved him. He's a great guy. He taught us many things: how to raise kids, become a justice of the peace (which he is), be a good photographer. He also taught us all about his home town of Swampscott. He especially enjoyed the Project Adventure assignment.



our main man JACK at Project Adventure

"So here it is 6:25 am of the final deadline. We haven't slept in days. We struggle to identify wrestlers on page... what page was it? We're weak from lack of food." No that's not true! It's 8:30 p.m. We've slept every night and tonight we sit in Fran's dining room eating Girl Scout COOKIES (peanut butters) and popcorn (...it's [illegible] that helped put this book together in our first novel — So the sequel is born . . .

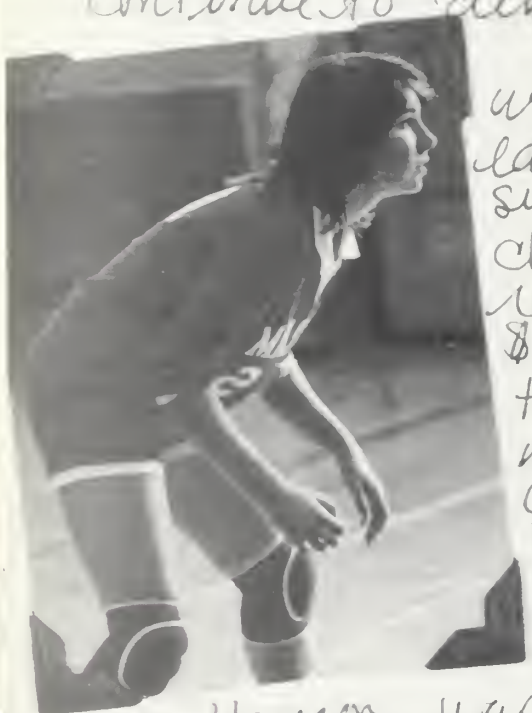
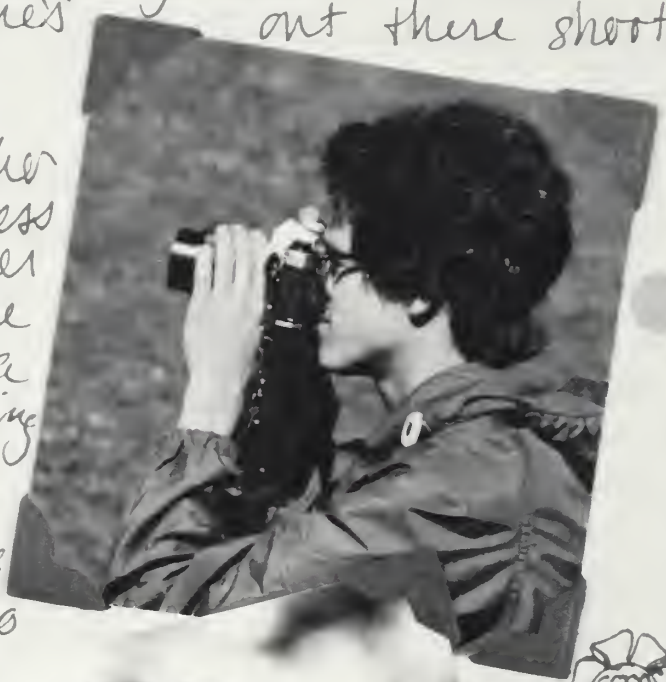
On putting together a yearbook

(ANOTHER CAMPMASCO PUB.)

What is a yrbk without pictures?? David was appointed photography editor in the Spring of '82. We know he's out there shooting somewhere. May his talents continue to "Develop"



Polly Fisher was our business editor. Under her supervision the class raised a record breaking $9000 and that aint whistling the Camp Masco Jingle !!



Roberta Hemeon was our art editor. She spent alot of time in the art room working hard. She was also the "body guard" of the yearbook — keeping it UNDER WRAPS!! She also managed to keep us organized and on track & would like to present us w/ the "Conclencions camper award" this was Mr. Meinelt's first year as yearbook adviser, and he did one swell job! Besides being our wonderful adviser, Mr. Meinelt was our "headline helper" With such classics as "PUCKER POWER" and "THE DRIBBLERS" he showed us why he was the adviser. But he was more than just a copy boy, his good sense of humor and his "fresh and alive" style made yearbook one big happy POW WOW!! We owe much of our success to Mr. Meinelt, and we'd like to thank him for growing back his moustache!

We can help you through the college of your choice.

We've all heard that there have been some changes in the student loan program lately, and maybe you haven't applied because you think you're no longer eligible.

Well, your local Shawmut office still has HELP (Massachusetts Higher Education Loan Plan) loans available.

And, you may still qualify for up to $2,500 or more each year to cover educational expenses regardless of your income.

So, stop into your local Shawmut office or give us a call. We'll tell you how to find out if you qualify for a student loan. And, if you do, we'll help you get it.

Of all the investment vehicles available to the investor, few are actually vehicles.

And of those few, none combines the security of a wise investment with the pleasures of a high-performance car better than BMW.

According to the October 1981 NADA Used-Car Guide, the average BMW 320i manufactured over the past 4 years has retained a phenomenal 95.8% of its original value.*

So if you're interested in an investment that lets you realize both financial and emotional dividends, contact us to arrange a thorough test drive at your convenience.
